The image shows the bass line for the song 'Runnin' Down A Dream' by Tom Petty. It is written in 4/4 time and consists of three systems of notation. Each system includes a bass staff with notes and a guitar staff with fret numbers. The first system covers the Intro (measures 1-4) and Verse (measures 5-10). The second system covers the Chorus (measures 11-14) and Interlude (measures 15-18). The third system covers the Outro (measures 19-22). The guitar staff uses a standard tuning (E, A, D, G, B, E) and includes a capo sign at the beginning of each system. The bass staff uses a standard bass clef and includes a 4/4 time signature at the beginning of the first system.
